

EOA SEMINAR KLAIPEDA

Thursday, 25 August 2022

"Opportunities and limits of the Olympic Movement for international understanding and peace in the context of current time"

/// SCHEDULE FOR ONLINE PARTICIPANTS

8:00 CEST / 9:00 EEST

Opening of the seminar

Prof. Dr. Asta Sarkauskiene, President at Lithuanian Olympic Academy

Prof. Dr. Manfred Laemmer, President at European Olympic Academies

Daina Gudzineviciute, President at Lithuanian National Olympic Committee

8:15 CEST / 9:15 EEST

Introduction to the topic

Prof. Dr. Asta Sarkauskiene, President at Lithuanian Olympic Academy

Daina Gudzineviciute, President at Lithuanian National Olympic Committee

8:45 CEST / 9:45 EEST

Lecture session

Prof. Dionyssi Gangas, International Olympic Academy:

"The Olympic Movement as a soft power in the international political environment"

Dr. Ansgar Molzberger, German Sport University Cologne:

"Sport between its own world and the political reality: A history of the modern Olympic Games – an overview"

Prof. Dr. Mariia Bulatova, Olympic Academy of Ukraine:

"The Olympic Truce: history and modernity"

Prof. Jim Parry, Charles University in Prague:

"Can sport really be a tool for peace?"

10:45 CEST / 11:45 EEST

Lunch break

13:30 CEST / 14:30 EEST

Study presentation

Assoc. Prof. Dr. Olga Kuvaldina, Klaipeda University

"Protecting Ukraine's sporting talent: the top 10 needs of Ukraine's Olympic sports in hostile conditions"

14:00 CEST / 15:00 EEST

Panel discussion

"The war in the Ukraine: What can the Olympic Movement achieve?"

Prof. Dionyssi Gangas, International Olympic Academy

Dr. Ansgar Molzberger, German Sport University Cologne

Prof. Dr. Mariia Bulatova, Olympic Academy of Ukraine

Prof. Jim Parry, Charles University in Prague

Host: Prof. Dr. Algirdas Raslanas, Lithuanian Olympic Academy

15:30 CEST / 16:30 EEST

Closing of the seminar